The Pizza Artist

Area YouTuber beats Buffalo Wild Wings' Blazin' Wings Challenge

The Pizza Artist, Buffalo Wild Wings, etc

Your publisher, having beaten the Buffalo Wild Wings Blazin' Challenge • How do you get to Carnegie Hall? Practice.

The Buffalo Wild Wings Blazin' Wings challenge, which started in the United States, is different in Canada. Here, the challenger has to finish ten wings with the Blazin' sauce, in five minutes. In the U.S., it is twelve, in six.

The Blazin' hot sauce is made with cayenne red pepper; red chili pepper; dehydrated habanero pepper; dehydrated red pepper; dehydrated jalapeno pepper and dehydrated...ghost pepper.

The challenge itself is about $14.00. You get the ten wings and one of the servers will supervise as you eat. If you do it, you get a t-shirt, so it almost pays for itself. There's also the paper hat, which you can have, one way or the other. I beat it, first try. There was practice, beforehand, though. For about $8.00 you can buy a 354ml bottle of the Blazin' sauce, itself. Do that, and practice.

Not only did I practice by applying the sauce to a lot of things for several days, I also got some extra practice really overdoing it with Barrie's own artist of dough, The Pizza Artist, aka Paolo Fabrizio.

We used this hot sauce as if it was pizza sauce.

Hot enough for you? That is all Blazin' hot sauce

Aside from just the heat of this sauce, you want to make sure that it doesn't make you barf, minutes after you eat it. That could be embarrassing, in public, even if you do make it to the bathroom in time. So get a bottle of the sauce, available at Buffalo Wild Wings at 139 Park Place Blvd., here in Barrie, practice, and give it a try. To watch the videos here, go to www.thepizzaartist.com.

The Battle of the Atlantic was the longest continuous military campaign of World War II, running from 1939 to the defeat of Germany in 1945. The Royal Canadian Navy, and Royal Navy had the difficult task of protecting convoys of merchant shipping of ammunition and supplies, against the German Navy and their fleet of U Boats. At the start of the war, the RCN had only 13 ships, and grew to almost 400 ships and 100,000 sailors. During the Battle of Atlantic the RCN lost 33 Ships and 2,210 sailors. The Royal Canadian Airforce also played a vital role protecting the convoys against the German Airforce, and Navy. During the Battle of Atlantic, the RCAF lost 750 members of the Airforce and many aircraft. Merchant Navy also sustained the loss of many ships and 1,600 Merchant Seamen. At the end of WWII, Canada had the 4th largest Navy in the world. The first Sunday of May each year, Memorial Services are conducted across Canada to mark the Battle of the Atlantic.

Clifford Hall was a member of the Royal Navy on loan to the Royal Canadian Navy, and served on HMCS Orangeville.

TKL comments on Mother's Day, reviews area parks

Sarah Lajeunesse and Apryl Munro at Lampman Lane Park

On what they wanted for Mother's Day: "I want to not be a mom," and "Leave us alone!" And wine.

Yes, another update on Sarah Lajeunesse and Apryl Munro. I just think they're funny. So sue me.

They did a review of their favourite local parks, based on a poll of all their friends who are moms. The Top Five are: Tyndale; St. Vincent; Lampman Lane, Bear Creek Eco-Park and number one: Sunnidale. Apryl's personal favourite is Bear Creek; Sarah's personal favourite is Sunnidale. This was part of their tour, called Keys to the City, sponsored by Pratt Homes.

Check their website at www.tklmedia.ca.

Hey! I'm a donut. A fucking donut. What do you want from me? Advice on how to get rid of garbage? Throw everything you want into the normal green garbage bag, because nobody is paid to inspect them...yet. All recyclables that are clean enough to handle go to the blue box. There you go. Now shut up and leave me alone.
